

Julia Joan Babcock

- Over 15 years of service in the public sector working in sustainable development for cities, ngo's and higher education institutions
- Over 9 years experience working in Vietnam in government official training, higher education exchange and teaching community development courses
- Specific expertise in urban and regional planning, collaborative processes and sustainable development

Degrees

Graduate Certificate in Public Management, Portland State University, USA, 2011

M.A. Urban and Regional Planning, Portland State University, USA, 2010

B.A. English with minors in Geography and Urban Planning, University of Florida, USA, 2005

Professional Experience

National Policy Consensus Center Project Manager, July 2019-Current

- Project development including research, facilitation and process management for public policy issues
- Program administration Government for the USAID Strengthening Provincial Capacity Program with Vietnamese institutional partners

Vietnam Oregon Initiative Program Administrator, 2011-Current

- Promote international partnerships and research through collaborative trainings and workshops

Oregon Solutions Program Associate, June 2010-June 2019

- Conduct assessments, communications and administrative support for collaborative governance processes

Intel Vietnam Scholars Program Coordinator, November 2012-June 2014

- Provided academic advising and coordinated corporate-sponsored training activities and events

Port of Cascade Locks Special Projects Manager, October 2007-August 2008

- Developed and managed grant applications for projects in economic development and historic preservation
- Composed reports and provided presentations for the Port Commission and the general public

City of Clearwater Planner I, September 2005-June 2006

- Provided technical customer service for building, sign and landscaping permits at the zoning counter

City of Clearwater Bicycle and Pedestrian Planning Intern, June-August 2004 and 2005

- Created ArcGIS maps to illustrate various stages of the master plan and determine latent demand

Research and Field Work

Lessons Learned from the High Desert Partnership Contributing Author, 2019

- Conducted interviews to inform collaborative forums for rural communities

Lessons from the Oregon Sage-Grouse Conservation Partnership Contributing Author, 2017

- Conducted interviews and synthesized replicable process design factors for a species management plan

Camp Odyssey Program Evaluator, 2011-2014

- Coordinated the development of pre and post camp surveys to assess impacts to youth development

Triple Bottom Line Tool Research Assistant, 2010-2011

- Developed case studies for the U.S. EDA-funded Triple Bottom Line Tool

Willamette Park Assessment and Recommendations Master's Project Team, 2009-2010

- Designed an evaluative park report with recommendations to balance natural resource and recreational uses

Post Carbon Cities Senior Research Associate, 2008

- Developed an international database as an online resource for municipalities to reduce carbon emissions

Preservation Institute of Nantucket Graduate, 2003

- Performed coursework in theory, practice, methodology and technology of architectural preservation to document a historic building towards UNESCO designation